March Of Dimes Nears $500 Mark In Final Phase

The Campbell March of Dimes collection is fast reaching the $500 mark with $470 already turned over to the county headquarters from this district. Campbell high school students, official collectors of the money donations in this area, are still on a door-to-door canvass with one week to go in the campaign.

Officials of the March of Dimes Campaign have extended the drive through February 12 instead of closing it on January 31 as in the past.

Pushing the drive to successful conclusion is Campbell high student body president Jasper Ciraulo. Advisors for the drive to replenish dwindling funds in the fight to stop polio are George Egling and Ralph Noddin.

Largest single collection came from the Campbell grammar school which donated $145. Next came the Campbell high school with $85, according to George Egling, advisor.

Collection boxes are still out in various stores throughout the community and final total will be more after they have all been taken up. Students will start picking up the boxes February 12.

Campbell organizations which have collected or donated from their treasury for the March of Dimes are: Campbell Theater, $80 in two nights; American Legion Auxiliary, $25; Zeta Chi, $29.78; Seetaubs, $25.76; Eta Phi, $9; Excalibur, $6; Theta Rho, $1.35; San Tomas school, $49.31, and Ada Rebekah, $15.

Six Campbell Men Travel To Capital For Lexington Dam

Six Campbell supporters of the Lexington Dam project for Santa Clara valley journeyed up to Sacramento January 24 to participate in the senate transportation committee hearing prior to the senate vote on the bill.

On Saturday, January 29, the senate overwhelmingly approved the measure 55-0 to reroute the Los Gatos-Santa Cruz highway around the site of the dam to be built by Santa Clara Valley Water Conservation district above Los Gatos.

Lending their support were Campbell residents Joe Gomes, Homer Hyde, Laurance J. Hill, Norman Husted, Herbert Shadle, and J. K. Schrader.

A bill appropriating the money originally was passed by the Legislature in 1947. To it were added amending amendments which prevented the $2,475,000 from being used. In the new measure these restrictions have been removed.

The bill now awaits Gov. Earl Warren's signature which is expected this week. After the bill is signed, according to Sacramento officials, preliminary work of the highway relocation project will start immediately.

The Campbell delegation traveled to Sacramento to give their support in the hearing prior to the passing of the bill. They drove to the capital city in Homer Hyde's automobile and returned that night.

QUEENS! WATCH OUT FOR EDWIN C. LEE

Have you joined in the big contest for the Queen's throne? February 22 is the night of the big dance and crowning. The list of contestants for the coveted spot is rapidly growing.

The most recent Campbell citizen competing for the number one spot on Old Settlers' Day is a fuzzy character whose application blank says his name is Edwin C. Lee. This could be a fictitious name to cover up a questionable past. He may be lost, strayed or stolen. There may even be a reward and dragnet out for him. Bulletins in the Post Office say someone entering girls' contests and answering to his general description is known to be operating in this vicinity.

It is suspected that this miscreant is determined to "steal" the vote away from the girls. Rumor has it he expects to sell enough tickets to win the Queen's crown. Imagine, a male Queen! But you girls can turn the trick against him.

Every ticket sold to the big dance by the Campbell American Legion Post 596 chalks up one vote for the most popular girl in Campbell, be they 6 or 60, Mr. Lee notwithstanding. Besides, an outfit of ladies clothing on Lee wouldn't be shown to the best advantage.

Come on girls! This is your opportunity. A wonderful prize, a high spot on a real throne in the parade and reigning in queenly splendor at the Dance is all yours, you lucky girl! Sell those tickets! Get those votes! Win those prizes!

Voters Re-Elect Three Members

All three members of Santa Clara Valley Water Conservation board were re-elected in a special election held Tuesday. Voted back into office were J. E. Wiesendanger, L. O. Wilcox, and Reginal L. Parry.

Less than five percent of the 16,000 persons eligible to vote in the three water conservation district divisions turned out at the polls.

CORRECTION— STILL A GOOD BUY

Due to a typographical error the price of the Bendix Automatic washer, now on sale at Accardi's home appliance store, was misquoted. The '48 automatic is selling for $169.50 at the store and not at the price printed in this week's Shopper. It's still a good buy.

Flaggs Announce New Pay Plan At Frozen Food Plant

A new plan of paying has just been announced at the Campbell Frozen Food Locker, according to its owners, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Flagg.

Owners of the lockers and new customers both may take advantage of the new pay-as-you-go plan. Details of the paying arrangement will be given by the Flaggs upon request.

"The Frozen Food Locker is open to all visitors who wish to see how meat is cut and frozen in a locker plant," said Mrs. Flagg. "We welcome everyone to see the operations but if large groups desire to come, we'd appreciate some advance notice."

All of the meat processed by the plant is quick frozen in a temperature of 34 degrees below zero. The customers' lockers are kept at a constant temperature of zero. The plant is located on Lowell Way, Campbell.

NEWCOMERS CAST IN FOOTLIGHTERS' PRODUCTION

By MRS. DEAN CHAMBERLIN

In its coming production of "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," the world-famous comedy by Cornelia Otis Skinner, the Footlighters of Campbell are featuring several new comers in the leading roles. The play will run two nights, Monday, February 21 and Friday, February 25 in the high school auditorium.

The action centers around two young girls on their first trip abroad. The part of Cornelia Otis Skinner is being taken by Evelyn Bachman who has appeared in minor roles and has shown ability which led to her selection for this part.

Marjorie Livingston, a newcomer to the group, but with considerable experience in stage work, is cast as Cornelia's best friend, Emily Kimbrough.

Other new faces to Footlighter productions include Lew Bass, who has recently moved to this area and who has had experience in little theater groups around Los Angeles; Kathy Kollmer, a drama major at San Jose State college; Mary Jones, who took the lead in the Campbell Union high school senior play two years ago; Norm and Lucille Corvello and Sterling Atsides who have recently joined the Footlighters.

At 1 p.m. the Old Settlers' Day parade will start a street long march with the Campbell Union high school band leading the procession followed by the Cadet Corps. In the parade will be highly decorated floats entered by various Campbell organizations competing for top honors of the day.

Chairman Bill Maderis of the Awards committee announced that 50 ribbons with the engraving "Old Settlers' Day—February 22" will be given out to the winners. In addition ten trophies are to be awarded.

Seven potential names have been announced for judges for the parade, according to general chairman Forrest Reese. They include Ralph Phillips, Joe McKinnon, Jack Thompson, Joe Gomes, Gay Schrader, Ross Trowbridge and Winifred Goodell. One of the music instructors in the high school will also act as judge.

CAMPUS CHATTER FROM CAMPBELL HIGH By VIRGINIA GRATTAN

At the Country Woman's Club in San Jose, is the answer to the often asked question, "Where will the Senior Ball be held this year?" Whether it will be formal or not and the exact date of the ball will be decided later by the senior cabinet.

The students have decided however, to wait until June and graduate with the rest of the class. Thirty-two mid-term freshmen are expected to enroll here February 7, from Campbell Grammar School.

Mr. Charles De Selle, for thirteen years a custodian at Campbell Union high school, retired on Tuesday. He plans to spend his time loafing and enjoying himself. He well deserves a rest.

Installation of new officers and commissioners will be the purpose of next Tuesday's assembly. Don Winston, student manager, will introduce the new officers.

Elected as the new officers for Girls' League are: Shirley Pannekoek, president; Gerry Hegg, vice-president, and Joan Sanders, secretary. The outgoing officers are Audrey Bergland, June Hunter and Nancy Walker.

Offering a scholarship to the senior students is the Elks National Foundation. The prizes range from $100 to 800, with two special awards for Californians of $300 each.

JOE NOVAKOVICH LEADS TEAM TO 39-27 WIN OVER BURBANK; BUSY BEE TAKES LEAGUE LEAD

Joe Novakovich, hitting the basket for 18 tallies, led the Campbell Hardware to a 39-27 victory over Burbank Recreation Center last night in the high school gym. In the second game of the evening the hard-to-beat Maderis quintet took a 37-31 thriller from Clark's Drugs in a game that saw Hal Sonntag, Maderis player, minus two teeth after running into an elbow. In the final tilt of the evening, the currently hot Busy Bee five knocked the props from under Jones Service to the tune of 34-29.

On Tuesday Jones Service took the opener from Campbell Hardware 32-27 with Lee Estrada leading his team with 14 points. In the second game Busy Bee, led by the scoring ability of Al Rodriguez who collected 16 tallies, downed Strong Paints 39-29. The nightcap Tuesday saw Clark's Drugs take a 47-26 breezer from Burbank Recreation Center.

Next week's games start at 7:30 p.m. in the high school gym with Busy Bee going out for their fourth straight against Burbank Recreation Center. At 8:30 p.m., Jones clashes with Clark's Drugs and at 9:30 p.m. Maderis meets Strong's Paints. Campbell Hardware draws a bye.

On Thursday February 10, Jones and Maderis will meet in the opener at 7:30. Burbank Recreation Center will go all out for Strong's Paints at 8:30 and closing game will find Campbell Hardware vs. Busy Bee. Clark's Drugs draws a bye.

League standings in the second half of the Campbell Basketball league shows:

	W	L
Busy Bee	3	0
Maderis	2	0
Campbell Hardware	2	1
Jones Service	1	1
Clark's Drugs	1	2

Dr. Fassen Tells Rotary Situation In Europe Today

Dr. Gustave Fassen, physics professor from Los Gatos, spoke before members of the Rotary Club Monday noon at the IOOF hall. Topic of Dr. Fassen's speech was "Europe—Past, Present and Future."

The largest turnout in the history of the Campbell Rotary Club was present to hear Dr. Fassen. Twenty-two visitors were also at the Monday meeting, according to Forrest Reese, secretary.

Europe should be combined into a United States of Europe. Dr. Fassen told the group. He said each country in Europe should be put on the same economic level and "in each country there should be taught both the native tongue and a universal language." Dr. Fassen said. "In this way the country would maintain its individuality and at the same time visitors and natives in one country would be able to speak the same language as the country across the border."

PTA Groups Will Summarize Talks On Citizenship

Summary meetings in each of the six schools participating in the Citizenship panels during January will replace the general meeting originally scheduled Tuesday, February 1, in the high school.

Principal Laurence J. Hill announced this week that the elementary schools in the Campbell Union high school district will summarize their findings either at regular or special PTA unit meetings.

The citizenship study has been a cooperative project of the high school with Moreland, Campbell, Moorpark, San Tomas, Cambrian and Union grammar schools. It is sponsored by El Paradiso council, PTA units of the six elementary schools and the high school PTA.

Cambrian School Goes Over Goal In Polio Drive

Cambrian school went over the top. The March of Dimes campaign at the local grammar school, under the direction of sixth grade teacher Mrs. Jeanette Howe, collected $265 in their drive.

"Cambrian gave each room of its eight grades a $10 quota," said Mrs. Howe, "and every room went over that amount, including the kindergarten."

Since the drive began in January children in the lower grades have given up their candy money to aid in the polio fight, the teacher remarked.

The money from the Cambrian school will be sent to the Campbell high school, official headquarters for the Campbell March of Dimes drive.

Over 70 Parents Turn Out For Troop 31 Dinner

Over 70 parents turned out for the potluck dinner sponsored by Troop 31 in the Campbell Congregational church dining hall Tuesday, Jan. 26. Mrs. Henry Parysek was in charge of the dinner assisted by Mrs. Ed Merrill, Mrs. R. E. Schaefer, Mrs. F. L. Gilliam, Mrs. Smith and many others.

After the dinner the parents were welcomed by SPL Henry Ramp and the meeting adjourned to the meeting hall where movies presented by the Associated Oil company were shown. Films were "Winter Olympics" and "Chimp the Aviator."

The parents were invited by the Troop to inspect the patrol rooms and have a "get-together." The various patrols of the Troop gave demonstrations on artificial respiration, flint and steel, and signaling for their parents.

Patrol leaders Gene Vargus, Bill Plymale, and Hubert Vargus were in charge of the demonstrations. Stunts furnished by the Troop members and group singing led by Larry Cowper concluded the evening's entertainment.

Future plans for Troop 31 include participation in the District Court of Honor February 8 and a snow trip February 25-27 at Long-barn.

Herschback Lauds Post 2 Scout As Fine Young Man

"We're very proud of Eddie Rosebrough," said Post 2 advisor Robert D. Herschback in an interview yesterday. "He's a fine young man of the highest caliber and deserves the award being given to him at the Scout Court of Honor." Rosebrough will receive the Eagle award, the highest Scout award, at the district awarding in the high school Tuesday, February 8. "Post 2 is proud of all its seven senior scouts who have been awarded Eagle badges," Herschback said. "The young men and myself in our post have all come up from scouting together and we take great pride in seeing one of the members recognized at a Court of Honor."

Post 2 are Senior Scouts, 15 years of age and over, who have been in Campbell for two years. They meet weekly at their post room on Rincon road.

The Senior Scouts are a service organization in addition to being explorer scouts. Their four plan program includes one-fourth for service work, one fourth social work, one-fourth outdoor activity, and one-fourth indoor programs and parliamentary business.

"We wish to thank all of the people in Campbell who helped make our Christmas tree sale such a huge success," the advisor said. "Because everyone cooperated so well Post 2 will be able to take a real summer camping trip this year. So to Sunny Mount theater for their lot and the Campbell theater, as well as to all who bought from us, thanks again, we really do appreciate the help."

Landscape Artist Speaks To Women

Gordon S. Wallace, landscape artist, was guest speaker at the Campbell Garden club meeting on Wednesday night. Wallace's topic was "Landscaping." At the business session the club voted to send two packages of seed through CARE to Europe. A committee was appointed to investigate the possibilities of a park promotion fight in Campbell. Appointed were Mrs. Harold Peck, Mrs. Clair Davidson, Mrs. Ethan Lanphear, Mrs. Monica Parr, Mrs. L. Barber, and Mrs. S. N. Hede-gard.
